5. Provide equal access to opportunities – enabling all staff to develop their skills and achieve their full potential.
6. Regularly review practices and procedures – to ensure compliance with the law and best practice.
7. Monitor workforce diversity – collecting (where lawful and appropriate) anonymised data on characteristics such as age, sex, ethnicity, disability, religion or belief, and sexual orientation. This helps us evaluate our progress and address any barriers.

4. Responsibilities

- Owner / Senior Leadership – overall responsibility for implementing this policy and leading by example.
- Managers – responsible for ensuring their teams follow this policy and addressing any breaches.
- All Employees – expected to treat others with dignity and respect, support a culture of inclusion, and report any concerns promptly.

5. Complaints and Enforcement

- Employees should raise concerns about discrimination, harassment, or victimisation using the company's grievance procedure (details available on request).
- Normally, complaints should be made to your line manager or, if appropriate, directly to the owner.
- Using the grievance procedure does not affect your legal right to make a claim to an Employment Tribunal within three months of the alleged incident.

6. Monitoring and Review

This policy will be reviewed annually and updated to reflect:

- Changes in legislation
- Guidance from the Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC)
- Feedback from staff and diversity monitoring outcomes
